Am glad that i am not the only one to find this series very good. This is the best series for young ladies! I have so strange taste on comedies and i find so hard one to please my intelligence, and i am so happy that their humor is exactly what i need. Love the gang of actors! If anyone knows a series or just a movie similar to this one, i say pretty please write back because i miss the series. And kindly ask the writers and the producers to CONTINUE it, even if the actors are now all grown up, i guess! Have a nice morning/day/evening/night! (because i do not know the exact time you will be reading this post)

This movie is awful, I can't even be bothered to write a review on this garbage! All i will say it is one of the most boring films I've ever seen. And the acting is very bad. The boy who plays the main character really annoys me, he's got the same expression on his face through out the movie. I just want to slap him! Basically 80% of the movie is slow motion shots of skateboarders, weird music, and utter sh*t.. Apparently I've got to write at least 10 lines of text to submit this comment, so I'll use up a few more lines by saying the lead character has got one of those faces you just want to slap! Meh i give up.. THIS MOVIE SUCKS !!!!
